FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- July 2, 2010 -- Commack, NY -- Setton International Foods, Inc. is voluntarily recalling limited quantities of its Fairway brand Energy Mix and its Setton Farms brand Total Energy Mix sold to select stores in NY and NJ because they may contain peanuts and chocolate flavored chips (Sugar, Partially Hydrogenated Palm Kernel Oil, Cocoa, Cocoa Processed with Alkali, Sorbitan Monosterate (An Emulsifier), Salt, Soy Lecithin (An Emulsifier), Vanillin (An Artificial Flavor)) not listed on the label.

No illnesses or complaints have been reported to date in connection with these products, although people who are allergic to peanuts could have a serious or life-threatening reaction if they consume these products.

The recalled Fairway "Energy Mix" products were sold to Fairway stores in NY and NJ and the Setton Farms "Total Energy Mix" products were sold to the Associated 9th Ave. store in NY, the Keyfood Gerritsen Ave. store in NY, limited Foodtown stores in NJ, and select ShopRite stores in NY and NJ.

The recall affects the following products:

- o 15 cases of Fairway brand Energy Mix sold in 16 oz. clear plastic containers with an "Exp." date of 05/24/11 through 06/28/11 with the UPC code: 34325 00050.
- o 33 cases of Setton Farms brand Total Energy Mix sold in 22 oz. clear plastic containers with a "Exp." date of 06/3/11 with the UPC code: 34325 03559.

These products were shipped directly to stores and not through distributors. All affected stores have been instructed to remove the products from their shelves.

Consumers can return the product to their place of purchase for a full refund. Consumers with questions may contact the company at (800) 227-4397 (9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Eastern time -- Monday - Friday)

- We believe that none of the products being recalled were processed or offered through the national office.
- We strongly encourage you to notify your agencies within one business day from receipt of this notice.
- ALL cased and uncased inventories, both at the member level and agency level, need to be checked. This product may have entered member and agency warehouses through salvage, local donations, TEFAP, local purchases, retail pickups, food drives, or other avenues.
- For additional local details, please contact the Health Department(s) for the area(s) your food bank serves.

About Feeding America Recall Notices

The Feeding America national office issues notifications of all national Class I recalls--those involving a health hazard situation in which there is reasonable probability that eating the food will cause health problems or death--and other recalls that may affect the safety of food supplied to network members. The national office strongly encourages all member product solicitors, operations managers, and others involved in food and grocery distribution to regularly consult resources provided by the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) at <http://www.fda.gov/opacom/7/alerts.html>, and the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) at http://www.fsis.usda.gov/Fsis_Recalls/index.asp.

Additionally, members can often receive information on national and local recalls by contacting their local health departments. If you or a colleague from a network food bank wish to subscribe or unsubscribe to the recall notification list, please click on "manage your subscription" at the bottom of this email.

If you are an agency of a food bank, please discuss with your local food bank how you would like to receive recall information from them in the future.
